Controller of Examination

MODIFIED/AMENDED EXAMINATION RULES 2012-2013

DT.24.07.2012

1. ATTENDANCE AND ATTENDANCE MAKE-UP

1.2 Minimum Percentage of Attendance:

1.2.1. B.A. LL.B. - In order to be allowed to appear in the End Semester Examination, a student shall attend at least 70% of the total classes held in the course concerned during the semester. Attendance for the purpose of 70% limit means coming to the class well prepared with the assignments.

Provided that if a student for any exceptional reason fails to attend 70% of the classes held in any subject, the Vice-Chancellor, may allow such student to appear in the examination only if he/she has attended 65% of classes held in that subject and he/she has obtained 70% attendance as a whole.

1.2.2. LL.M.- In order to be eligible to appear in the End Semester Examination, a student shall be required to attend at least 75% of the total classes held in each subject to be taught during the concerned semester. Attendance for the purpose of 75% limit means coming to the class well prepared with the assignments.

1.3 Closure of Attendance:

Attendance shall be closed 7 (seven) days before the first day of End Semester Examination to enable Examination Department to publish list of "Not Eligible" students due to shortage of attendance for appearing in End-Semester Examination.

1.4 Status of Attendance

The status of attendance shall be declared by 5th of every academic month by the examination department. The faculty members shall submit the status to the examination department by 2nd of every academic month. Any objection pertaining to the notified attendance shall be communicated, in writing, to the examination department within two days of publication, failing which the notified attendance shall be deemed as final.

Provided that if a student remains absent for any authorized reasons, he/she shall submit the objection within 3 (three) days after joining the University.

1.5 Discollegiate:

1.5.1. B.A. LL.B (Hons) - A Student failing to attend 70% of the total classes held shall not be allowed to appear in the End Semester Examination. Any further relaxation in this rule shall be governed by the Bar Council of India Rules.

1.5.2. LL.M.- A Student not attending 75% of the total classes held shall not be allowed to appear in the End Semester Examination.

1.6 Attendance make up:

1.6.1 Attendance make up shall be granted by the Vice-Chancellor on the recommendation of the Class Teacher and Faculty Advisor. Attendance make up shall be admissible subject to prior approval for participation in moot courts, seminars, university exchange programs, conferences, internships or any other academic / cultural / sports activities. Necessary attendance shall be given for days of absence (i.e., number of classes).

1.6.2 Attendance make up shall not exceed a maximum of ten (10) days per semester for all classes. Attendance make up not availed of in one semester shall not be carried forward to the next semester/year. In addition to 10 days attendance make up, a maximum of two days make up may also be allowed for visa interview.

1.6.3 Students are required to submit application to the academic section for attendance make up along with copy of invitation, abstract, copy of article or approval for participation from concerned faculty advisor for prior permission. No Attendance make up shall be granted post facto.

1.6.4 Attendance make up shall not be granted for Medical reasons, Summer School visits, Private Exchange Programs including internships, Pass-port, etc., during continuance of the semester under any circumstances.

1.6.5 For availing attendance make-up, a student has to apply to the Examination Section in prescribed form within 07 days (seven days) of returning/joining the University, failing which the attendance makeup shall not be granted.
